

YOU'RE WELCOME IN ACWORTH

2021 MEDIA KIT

Acworth, Georgia is located about 35 miles northwest of Atlanta minutes off of I-75 in Cobb County.

While it is close enough to Atlanta to experience professional sports and cultural events equated with a larger city, the small-town atmosphere of Acworth offers ample opportunities for family fun and tranquility.

DINING

Small town charm with a hot culinary scene.

Local award-winning, chef-driven restaurants in the heart of downtown Acworth attract travelers near and far!

Experience authentic southern cajun fusion at Henry's Louisiana Grill, or enjoy the tastes of a true Tuscan trattoria at Fuscus. For an elegant evening, discover unrivaled American cuisine at Dogwood Terrace, or indulge in upscale seafood at Fish Thyme.

Referred to by locals as simply "The Tavern," Center Street Tavern offers laid back vibes in a renovated hardware store setting with traditional pub fare. Red Top Brewhouse keeps the community vibe alive with artisan beer, wine, and cider products in an indoor/outdoor area complete with music, art, games and adventure.

For a true southern experience, JD's BBQ specializes in smoked meats, using hickory smoked wood chips, while L. Marie's celebrates traditional cuisine with recipes passed down over three generations for comfort food of the deep south.

Traditional southern meets coastal cuisine at 1885 in a laid-back atmosphere with dedication to local, fresh ingredients. And you won't want to miss Doro's. This unassuming Italian gem boast homemade doughs and sauces that keep it local, real and mouth-watering.

"RIGHT OFF THE INTERSTATE is this whole little beautiful corner of the world with award-winning restaurants, and shopping, and a wonderful openness about the people here."

– Lisa Mack

ENDLESS OUTDOOR ACTIVITIES

Outdoor enthusiasts unite!

Nestled between Lake Allatoona and Lake Acworth, outdoor adventure abounds, with activities sure to appeal to all levels.

- 1 Swim at Cauble Park on Lake Acworth.
- 2 Hit the links on a championship course at Cobblestone.
- 3 Paddle around Lake Acworth in a kayak or on your board, where motors are prohibited and the waters are always welcoming.
- 4 Or, if you feel the need for speed then Lake Allatoona is your perfect spot to let'r rip and leave'em in your wake.

Just a short drive from Atlanta, Acworth's lakes, green spaces and parks are perfect for a day of play!
